

CITY INTELLIGENCE.
PURIM.

The Jewish Festival and its Observance.
The observance of the Jewish festival of Purim commences this evening. This is a thanksgiving festival, instituted by Mordecai and Esther, in commemoration of the escape from destruction of the Jewish nation 2288 years ago, when they were residing in the dominions of King Ahasuerus, the Persian monarch. The entire history of the occurrence commemorated will be found in the Book of Esther, where is described the machinations of Haman, the Agagite and King's counselor, and how these machinations were overthrown by Queen Esther. Haman sought the destruction of the people, and had even obtained a special decree to that purpose from the King. This edict could not be revoked according to the law of the Medes and the Persians, which altereth not, but on the interposition of the Queen the Jews were allowed to defend themselves. Seventy-six thousand Persians attacked the Israelites, who made a defense and slew all that number who made the attempt.

This was in the 357th year before the birth of Christ, and ever since that time no one who called himself a Jew permitted the season to pass without some commemorative services. The instructions for the observance of the festival include the command to eat, drink, and be merry, to meet in the synagogues, to thank God for the overthrow of Haman's plot, and also for the existence of the nation, and to give liberally to the poor.

This evening the Israelites of this city will observe the occasion as it is observed all over the world wherever the Jews have foothold enough to erect a synagogue. They will assemble in the synagogues, where, with other services, the entire book of Esther will be read in the hearing of all present. This will be repeated to-morrow morning. During the ensuing week, and possibly even for a longer period, the Jews will be given up for entertainments at one another's houses, and to family reunions and social enjoyments. Distributions of gifts to friends and relatives form a distinctive mark of the ceremonies of this festival.

WHO WILL IT BE?

The Contest for Chief Engineer of the Fire Department.

To-night the paid Fire Department Commissioners hold a stated meeting, at which it is confidently expected that the first important step—namely, the election of Chief and Assistant Engineers—will be taken. In view of this probable action, there was this morning a great deal of running in-and-out by firemen and aspirants for the positions at the rooms of the commissioners at Fifth and Chestnut streets. Two tickets have been named, as follows:—

TICKET NO. 1.

Chief Engineer—William H. Johnson (Rep.), of the Good Will Engine.
Assistant—William Sweeney (Dem.), of the Niagara Hose; Harry J. Stephens (Rep.), of the Perseverance Hose; George Hensler (Rep.), of the Mechanic Engine; Richard Mooney (Dem.), of the Columbia Engine; William Humphries (Rep.), of the Taylor Hose.

TICKET NO. 2.

Chief Engineer—Thomas H. Peto (Dem.), of the Hope Hose.
Assistant—William Dankle (Rep.), of the Shillier Hose; James Patterson (Rep.), of the Delaware Engine; James McAnulty (Rep.), of the Fairmount Hose; George B. Myers (Rep.), of the West Philadelphia Hose; William Warner (Rep.), of the America Hose.

The prospects, if we are able to judge from current rumor, are decidedly in favor of the election of the ticket named above. It is said, also, that there is a probability of a compromise in the election of Charles Darragh, of the Harmony Engine Company, for Chief Engineer. But we will very likely know all about it to-morrow.

THE BANK OF AMERICA is a new institution, located in the old savings fund building, No. 303 Walnut street, and which was organized on Saturday last by the election of a board of directors consisting of Messrs. Henry C. Dallett, the head of the well-known shipping and commission house of Dallett & Son, established in 1839; Elwood Shannon, Esq., a well-known importer and dealer in teas, in Chestnut street; Charles S. Clow, Esq., builder and contractor; Caleb J. Milne, Esq., well-known manufacturer of cotton goods, on Chestnut street, and William Harrison, Esq., the former Deputy Collector of the Port of Philadelphia for many years. Charles H. Price, Esq., was elected President. Price was formerly the cashier of the Seventh National Bank, which institution he entered as clerk and rose by his merit to that position, which he resigned to accept the new position. The charter of this bank is granted by an act of Assembly approved April, 1870, and contains many liberal provisions. The stockholders are very prominent gentlemen in mercantile and manufacturing circles, and the success of the bank is already a certainty. This makes the fourth State bank in the city in operation.

The capital of the bank is $500,000, and it is authorized to increase it to $2,000,000. The location of the bank renders it very convenient for bankers, brokers, and general mercantile accounts.

REPUBLICAN REGISTERING OFFICERS.—To-morrow, between the hours of 4 and 8 o'clock, the Republican Boards of Registering Officers will meet in their respective divisions, for the purpose of correcting the registry of Republican voters. On Tuesday, the 14th instant, between the hours of 4 and 8 o'clock P. M., the Republican citizens will meet in their respective divisions, and elect one Senator and one representative delegate, to meet in convention on May 17, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of electing delegates to the State Convention to nominate an Auditor and Surveyor-General.

Outside of the city many candidates have put forward their claims, but in Philadelphia, as yet, very few have announced themselves.

AFTER THE DANCE.—A party of men at a late hour on Saturday night, after leaving the corner of a dance-house on Barclay street, above Broad, got into a fight, and to break up the row Officer Drisko arrested two of them. They went along quietly enough for awhile, but one of them suddenly seized the officer's mace, struck him upon the head, and in the tussle escaped. The other fellow managed to slip through his coat, leaving that garment in the officer's hand.

TOO FOND OF BILLIARDS.—At 4 o'clock yesterday morning Officers Bell and Law, of the Eighth district, observed a light in the billiard saloon of Messrs. Markley & Co., at the northwest corner of Eighth and Vine streets. Sending to Mr. Markley for the key, the establishment was opened, and on going up stairs they found a man who was trying very hard to conceal himself. He gives the name of William Harris, and he will be arraigned before Alderman Kerr this afternoon.

ELECTION FOR DIRECTORS OF THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.—The annual election for directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad will be held to-day, between the hours of 10 A. M. and 6 P. M. The following gentlemen comprise the nominations, and of course they will be elected:—Messrs. J. Edgar Thomson, Josiah Bacon, Wistar Morris, George Black, of Pittsburgh; Samuel T. Bodine, Joseph B. Myers, Edward C. Knight, Washington Butcher, John M. Kennedy, and John Rice.

DISTURBANCE IN A CHURCH.—A policeman of the Second district last evening heard a disturbance in a church on Hazel street. He entered the place, and there found a drunken man named Theodore Kneers. The officer attempted to remove him, when Kneers struck back, causing much confusion. Kneers has been put under bail for a further hearing, by Alderman Lutz.

MALICIOUS MISCHIEF.—Two mischievous boys named Edward Brandt and Thomas O'Brien were arrested at Thirtieth and Thompson streets on Saturday last for displacing a switch on the Reading Road, and also for placing bricks on the track. Alderman Lutz had them in jail to keep the peace.

MEETING OF THE PHILADELPHIA PRESBYTERY.

This morning at 10 o'clock a special meeting of the Philadelphia Presbytery was held at the Presbyterian rooms, No. 1334 Chestnut street, for the purpose of taking action in the matter of Trinity Presbyterian Church, deferred from a former meeting.

The subject was discussed at great length, and several members censured the pastor, Rev. Mr. Brown, very strongly for the late course he had taken in connection with the church. It was moved that an advisory committee of the presbytery be appointed, with which the pastor could confer. This was debated. The present difficulty is mainly concerning an amendment to the charter of the church.

Rev. Mr. Agnew was nominated on the committee, but asked to be excused, which request, after being discussed, was granted.

Rev. Dr. Macgrace and Rev. Mr. Matchmore were then appointed the clerical members of the committee, who are to serve in connection with the three Elders who belonged to a former committee for the same purpose.

Permission was given to the Richmond Presbyterian Church to prosecute a call to the Rev. Mr. Gardner, after which the Presbytery adjourned.

THE BOARD OF SURVEYS.—The regular meeting of the Board of Surveys was held to-day at noon, President Sullivan presiding in the chair. The construction of a sewer three feet in diameter on Fifth street, from Wager 75 feet northward, was authorized, and also one of the same dimensions on Cherry street, from Tenth to Eleventh. Also, the extension to the west already constructed on South street to the west curb line of Richmond street.

The board occupied nearly the entire session in discussing eight sectional plans, which will be advertised, and hearings from the parties interested will take place at the next stated meeting.

BURGULAR CAPTURED.—Bernard Brian, alias "urly Brian," was this morning at 4 o'clock arrested coming out of the cellar of the California House, No. 2331 Richmond street, kept by Mr. Michael Myers. Brian had entered the place, had packed up quite a number of bottles of ale, brandy, etc. He was recognized as an old hand at the business, and has been committed by Alderman Neill.

A BAD BOARDER.—A man named F. Kenney, who has been boarding at the house of a poor woman—a sempstress, living at No. 235 S. Tenth street—on Saturday last assaulted her, because she had mildly requested him to pay his board, a duty which he has neglected for some time past. Alderman Morrow held Kenney in $500 bail to answer for the assault.

SUSPICIOUS MOVEMENTS.—John Smith and John Moran were arrested at Thirty-first and Market streets last evening, on the suspicion that they were about no good. They had followed a gentleman out of the depot, and were acting in a very mysterious manner when captured. They had been from New York all day, and Alderman Randall held them for a further hearing.

THE DRY GOODS TRADE.—About fifty of the leading dry goods, commission, and jobbing houses have become members of the Commercial Exchange Association, and will meet daily at the Chamber of Commerce building for the transaction of business. There was a good attendance this morning.

STOLEN ARTICLES RECOVERED.—A couple of coils of rope were found in an empty house in the vicinity of Twenty-third and Market streets, by Officer McGrogan, yesterday morning at an early hour. They were returned to the owners, Messrs. Starr & Son, contractors at the Gas Works, from whom they had been stolen on Friday last.

CLERKED A CONSTABLE.—In Germantown on Saturday last Constable McCafferty proceeded to seize the goods of John Garsende, living on Carpenter street. Garsende met the constable at the door and with a club struck that official a heavy blow on the head and fell off of which he has been held in $1000 bail by Alderman Thomas. The constable is badly injured.

HEAVY LOSS.—Mr. J. C. Borradell arrived in this city from Atlantic City in the latter part of last week, and took board at No. 216 South Delaware avenue. On Saturday night last he left his boarding-house, and when he returned found that a wallet, containing $1300 in cash, had been cut from his pocket.

SHOT IN THE HAND.—James McBride, living in Frankford, on Cherry street, above Fourth, while handling a pistol yesterday morning, was shot in the hand by the accidental discharge of the weapon.

THIEF FRIGHTENED OFF.—Officer Attenger yesterday frightened off a thief who was endeavoring to enter the store of Thomas Inscho, No. 920 Market street.

ROPE.—Alderman Lutz has sent to prison one Alexander Jones, who was guilty of stealing a coil of rope from a place at Swanston street and Mead alley.

Excitement in Paris.
LONDON, March 6.—(Special to N. Y. Telegram.)—A despatch from Paris states that the city is in a great state of excitement in consequence of the determined action of the Revolutionary party.

The revolutionists have entrenched themselves at Montmartre, with a battery of guns, and the Government has brought up troops of the line to resist any attack the revolutionists may make on the city.

The reports of the organization of the revolutionists are very much exaggerated, but the fact that there is an organization of a very formidable character is too obvious to be denied.

Railroad connection, carrying mails, with England and Belgium, is now complete.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Meeting of the High Commission.
Special Dispatch to the Evening Telegraph.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The Joint High Commission met at the State Department to-day, and proceeded with the regular business before them. They will continue now from day to day until all the business before them is disposed of. It is understood that if all the matters brought before the commission are satisfactorily adjusted, the President will call an Executive Session of the Senate.

two or three months hence for the purpose of considering such treaty or treaties as will be made between the two governments. This will also give the President an opportunity to lay before the Senate the Report of the San Domingo Commission, which will have been made, and probably a treaty of annexation.

A Republican Senatorial Caucus has been called for to-morrow morning to rearrange the committees for the new Congress. It is understood that the Question of Adjournment will be discussed and some agreement made as to the course the Republicans will take in this matter when the House resolution is presented.

Ex-Members of Congress Leaving.
Special Dispatch to the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—There was a very large number of visitors at the Executive Mansion to-day, including nearly all the ex-members of Congress whose terms have just expired, and a great many of the new members. A majority of the former called to pay their parting respects to the President and introduce their successors.

The different departments to-day are also thronged with members and ex-members.

Special Dispatch to the Evening Telegraph.
WASHINGTON, March 6.

In addition to some Legislation for the South, there are many Senators who think the Apportionment Bill should be passed. This will be resisted by Senators from all the States likely to lose representation. A large number of Senators and members, availing themselves of the recess, were at

The White House this morning, seeking interviews with the President. It is understood the President has in contemplation the nomination of several Senators and members, whose terms have expired, to important positions at home and abroad.

Governor Holden, of North Carolina, was among those who saw the President to-day. Holden gave him an account of the condition of Affairs in North Carolina, and assured him that it would be impossible to do anything for the party in the South without Congressional action.

Transfer of Troops—Army Orders.
Special Dispatch to the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The following official order has been issued:—

GENERAL ORDERS NO. 17, HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY, ADJUTANT-GENERAL'S OFFICE, WASHINGTON, March 4, 1871.—The following transfers of troops are made, and the movements will take place under the direction of the department commanders where the troops are now serving:—

First. A regiment of infantry, the one that can be best spared, and which has served longest on the frontier, is transferred from the Department of the Platte to the Department of the South; to proceed by rail to Louisville, Ky., and to report for assignment to the department commander.

Second. The 7th Cavalry, from the Department of the Missouri to the Department of the South. Eight companies to proceed by boat from Fort Leavenworth to Louisville, Ky., and the other companies to follow by the same route as soon as they can be spared.

Third. The 6th Cavalry from the Department of Texas to the Department of the Missouri. Six companies to march as early as possible, and the other six companies to follow as soon as they can be relieved by the other cavalry companies now serving in the same department.

This regiment to march to Fort Gill in the Indian country, and thence to such point and by such routes as the commanding general of the Department of the Missouri may order.

Fourth. The School of Instruction for Light Artillery at Fort Riley, Kansas, will be discontinued, and the batteries distributed to headquarters of their respective regiments, where the instruction and practice will be continued under the immediate supervision of their respective colonels. Battery K, 1st Artillery, with guns, horses, and equipments complete, will be shipped from Fort Leavenworth by boat to Pittsburgh, thence by rail to Fort Hamilton, New York harbor, or such port as may be appointed as headquarters 1st Artillery. Battery A, 1st Artillery, will turn in the battery and equipment at arsenal at Fort Leavenworth, and their horses to Quartermaster Department, for issue to 7th Cavalry, and proceed by rail to the Presidio, San Francisco, where the department commander will cause the battery to be re-equipped and mounted as a four-gun battery. Battery C, 3d Artillery, will be sent by boat to Louisville, Ky., and thence by rail to Charleston, S. C., which will be made the headquarters of the 3d Artillery, to which point Colonel George W. Getty will proceed and take post, subject to the orders of the commanding general, Department of the South. Battery B, 4th Artillery, will proceed from Fort Leavenworth by boat to Parkersburg, W. Va., or Belair, Ohio, and thence by rail to Fort McHenry, Md., the headquarters of the regiment. The officers in command of these several detachments will report from time to time by letter or telegraph to the commanding-generals of the departments to which they are hereby assigned their routes and movements, that suitable arrangements may be made for their supplies. By command of General Sherman.
